Vodafone

With over 180 million customers across five continents, Vodafone is the worldwide largest telecommunications network company.

In order to colorfully enrich its latest Vodafone shop, Traxon fitted its unprecedented Tile 64PXL Was panels in the entrance hall of the flagship store. The panels' fusion effect allows Vodafone to create fascinating washing effects attracting the attention of passers-by.

Controlled by advanced DMX technology, the panels can be used for customized visual animations and videos for promotional and commercial purposes.
